Roald Dahl's

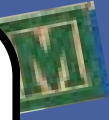

Matilda

THE MUSICAL JR.

Perins School
Theatre

26th and 27th
February 2026

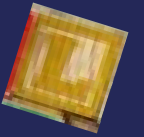

Welcome

Hello and welcome! We are absolutely thrilled to have you here for what is truly the biggest and most ambitious show we have ever created. From the very first rehearsal, the students have amazed us with their talent, dedication and excitement. If determination were a superpower, this cast would rival Matilda herself.

We are hugely grateful to Perins School for their incredible support. Their help, encouragement and belief in this project have been invaluable, and we could not have brought Matilda to life without them. And of course, a massive thank you to all the parents and families for every lift, reminder, snack, costume rescue and cheer from the sidelines. We appreciate you enormously.

Tonight is a celebration of courage, creativity and teamwork. Or, as Matilda reminds us, proof that even when you are small, you can do truly extraordinary things.

Let the magic begin!

Big Thinkers

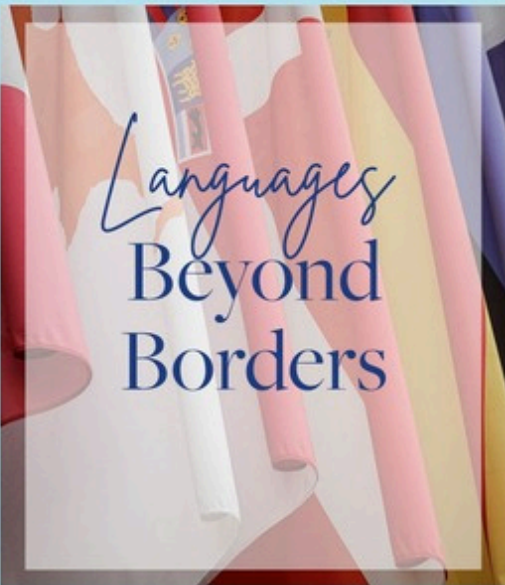

The image shows a blurred background of text with words like 'consider', 'phiz', 'er', 'phy', and 'b'. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, light-colored statue of a person sitting in a contemplative pose, similar to Rodin's 'The Thinker'.

COMPUTING WORKSHOP

The image features a blue-toned background with binary code (0s and 1s) and glowing digital lines, creating a sense of a virtual or data-driven environment.

Meet the cast

A little bit naughty... and a lot brilliant!

Interviews by Ivy, Poppy and Norah

Ever wondered what happens when you unleash three determined interviewers with clipboards, strong opinions and absolutely no fear on the cast of Matilda Jr? You get big dreams, cake drama, strong opinions and enough cheekiness to make even Miss Trunchbull twitch. Poppy, Norah and Ivy asked the questions. The cast delivered the chaos.

When they grow up

Our cast is brimming with ambition. Bea, Esther, Mabel and Esme all see themselves teaching one day, and Immy wants to be a music teacher. Chloe S, Elise and Freya, our Miss Honey, all dream of becoming doctors, with Freya explaining she wants to help children.

Future performers were everywhere. Emily confidently declared she wants to be an actress, while Chloe A hopes to act and sing “because I want to see people happy”. Sienna and Thea Grace also want to be actors, Jemima hopes to dance forever, and Ivy, our Matilda, aims to be a singer, dancer, fashion designer and future Home Bargains owner with Poppy.

Creative hopes were plentiful. Ellie G and Darcie want to be fashion designers, Harper and Izzy M love interior design, and Elena, Sophia D and Isla plan hairstyles galore. Amelia A-A wants to be an artist “because I have good experience with paint” and Rosalie is heading for bakery life.

Adventurers and athletes also made an appearance. Rory wants to be a lifeguard, Myla dreams of being an Olympic swimmer, Oliver hopes to join the RAF, Olive wants to teach horse riding, and Grace wants to run a spa. Georgia H is certain she’ll be a banker “because I am good with money”.

Xanthe admitted “I can’t choose!” and Chester, our Mr Wormwood, offered the most memorable plan of all: “Eat burgers!” Flo added author to the list and Amelie said lawyer. The future is in very lively hands.

Meet the cast

Favourite cake

Chocolate cake had a huge following from Annabelle, Chloe S, Chloe A, Poppy and others. Sophia D, who plays Bruce, summed it up perfectly: “I’m playing Bruce, so it has to be chocolate, and Alysha, playing our cook emphatically agreed!

The lemon drizzle supporters were loud too, with Anastasia (Miss Trunchbull), Mrs Cook and Norah all choosing it. Rosalie picked carrot cake, Amelia S went classic with Victoria sponge, Darcie chose sponge cake, and Freya opted for cheesecake because “it’s gooey”. Isla and Esther went for vanilla. Harper boldly declared, “Any apart from chocolate!” and Myla shocked the room with “I don’t like cake!!” We suspect Miss Trunchbull would approve.

Favourite musical

Matilda itself was a hit with Izzy G and Jemima, but Wicked swept the room with fans including Amelie, Harper, Emily, Immy, Mrs Shayler and Mrs Cook. Elsewhere, Esther chose High School Musical, Grace loved Descendants “because the cliffhangers are really good”, Izzy M chose Six, and Freya championed Elf thanks to the banana-spitting scene. Lana announced, “I don’t have one, I don’t like musicals,” but we’re still working on her.

Favourite line from Matilda

This was a dramatic round. Chloe S gave a fierce “Shut up, maggots!”, Emily and Darcie chose “I’m a girl”, and Isla declared “I am a princess!” Ivy and Lana both loved “Sometimes you have to be a little bit naughty”, Paddy went for “The wormwood is a stupid man and assumed I was too”, Chester chose “Stupid nasty question asking Russians”, and Mrs Shayler enjoyed the classic “You foul carbuncle.”

Favourite Roald Dahl book

The cast showed excellent taste. Anastasia chose Matilda, Darcey picked Fantastic Mr Fox, and Izzy M and Esme both went for Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Sophia O brought some giggles to the conversation with her choice of The Magic Finger, which she loves “because it’s so funny when they get red and angry”. Norah added some shivers with The Witches “because it’s scary!”

Acknowledgements

A production like Matilda Jr takes a village... and thankfully, we've had the best village imaginable.

Our heartfelt thanks go to Mr Nevola and Mrs Alexiou at Perins, who generously gave us the unbelievable opportunity to perform in the Perins Drama Hub. This experience has meant the world to our cast. A huge thank you also to Mr Graham and Miss Eglin for giving up their time to support us as well as Miss Marsh.

We would also like to thank Jenny from Strictly Showtime for her generous loan of props and Zoe (Poppy's mum) for doing some fantastic prop work too.

A huge thank you also goes to Miss Mobbs for her brilliant choreography for When I Grow Up and Revolting and the talented Perins pupils Ella, India, Imogen and Isobel, who helped the children learn their fantastic dance routines.

We are also very grateful to Mr Glew for his continued support, and to the wonderful staff across our school who have helped in countless ways behind the scenes, especially Mrs Appel, Mrs Cawdeary, Mrs Cox, Mrs Du Lam, Mrs Gibson for all their help during the performances with an extra special mention to Miss Stratton for her version of Telly.

To our parents and families — thank you for the line-learning, the lifts, the last-minute costumes, the rehearsal juggling and the endless encouragement. Your support keeps the magic alive.

Finally thank you to our incredible cast, whose energy, teamwork and determination have filled every rehearsal with excitement. They really are the heart of this whole production.

A very special thank-you must go to Mrs Shayler and Mrs Cook, who have led Showtime with extraordinary dedication and care. They would never let us make a fuss... but we think they deserve a big hip-hip-hooray for everything they do.
